

2020 General Election

PRESIDENT OF THE US

DEMOCRAT Joseph R. Biden / V. P Kamala Harris (Build Back Better)

VISION; Rebuild the backbone of the country, the middle class. Make sure everyone comes along regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation or disability.

PRIORITIES; Providing healthcare for Americans, lowering cost of health care by providing a tax credit for working families. Lower prescription drug prices, combat systemic racism expand social security, raise wages, protect good union jobs and benefits, equality for people with disabilities, ending opioid crisis, stopping epidemic of gun violence, LGBTQ equality, education beyond high school, demonstrate respected leadership on the world stage, bring mfg jobs back to the US.

REPUBLICAN Donald J. Trump /VP Mike Pence (Make America Great Again)

PRIORITIES; Enact fair trade deals that protect American jobs, made in America tax credits, return to normal in 2021, bring back mfg jobs from China, build the wall, terminate the Affordable Care Act.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

DEMOCRAT Josh Shapiro

PRIORITIES: He has taken on child abuse in the Catholic Church. Protecting seniors, veterans and small businesses from scams, protect women's access to no-cost contraception as required by ACA and focused on police misconduct and violence.

REPUBLICAN Heather Heidelbaugh

PRIORITIES; Will pursue these problems: opioids and their aftermath, special interest groups, consumers continuing to be ripped off by scammers who ignored the Do Not Call List and corruption in government.

AUDITOR GENERAL

DEMOCRAT Nina Ahmad

PRIORITIES: Advocate for transparency and promoting the public good. Will use facts and data to ensure responsible governance, use power of an audit to be the chief fiscal watchdog, cut health care costs, call out influence of NRA, outspoken in her support of minority communities and historic civil rights marches this year.

REPUBLICAN Timothy DeFoor

PRIORITIES: Work to have a more transparent government. Bring in subject matter experts to audit progress and performance of any new and expensive initiatives and projects to determine if tax payer dollars are being spent wisely. Perform detailed quality management audits.

STATE TREASURER

DEMOCRAT Joe Torsella

PRIORITIES: A Commitment to transparency and integrity, helping low income and middle income families, providing proven results for taxpayers. Fighting inequality and helping families improve financial literacy. He plans to create universal college savings and individual retirement accounts to help bridge the income gap.

REPUBLICAN Stacy L. Garrity

PRIORITIES: Help Pennsylvanians start and maintain 529 accounts that will make education affordable for everyone, return all unclaimed property, eliminate waste and hidden fees and commit to transparency.

REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS

DEMOCRAT Bill Marx

PRIORITIES; Advocate for a modern “New Deal” to support economic growth and job creation by investing in rebuilding America, increase minimum wage and tie to inflation

Fix and improve the ACA, lower prescription drug costs, rebuild infrastructure, believes climate change is tied to national security.

REPUBLICAN Guy Reschenthaler

PRIORITIES; Cut regulations to help create jobs, end sanctuary cities, fight to make 2017 tax cuts permanent.

SENATOR IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY 37TH DISTRICT

DEMOCRAT Pam Iovino

PRIORITIES; Believes every child in PA needs access to quality education including pre-K. Will protect the ACA, includes passing protections for pre-existing conditions and making sure women have access to comprehensive health care. Supports increase in minimum wage to $12/hr, raising to $15/hr over 6 years. Index that to inflation, incentive programs to grow small businesses and minority businesses, and expand access to labor unions.

REPUBLICAN Devlin Robinson

PRIORITIES; Committed to policies that end regulatory overreach, reinvigorate mfg in PA, fight efforts to raise income or sales taxes, and to full and fair funding for school districts in the 37th dist.

REPRESENTATIVE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY 15TH DISTRICT

DEMOCRAT Bob Williams

PRIORITIES; Supports universal health care, will protect and expand social security and Medicare for all Americans, stands with women in their right to control their own bodies, modernize infrastructure and ensure workers are fairly compensated with a livable minimum wage.

REPUBLICAN Glenn Thompson

PRIORITIES; creating jobs, expanding technology to improve and sustain rural PA, work to ensure access to high quality affordable education for more students, advocate for increased access and affordable quality of care and patient choice in health care (esp. in rural communities).

REPRESENTATIVE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY 39TH DISTRICT

DEMOCRAT Sara-summer Oliphant

PRIORITIES; Will fight for PA children and families impacted by the opiod epidemic, education reform to ensure every district has adequate resources despite community tax base, increase rights for individuals with disabilities, fight for a livable wage and stands with unions.

REPUBLICAN Mike Puskaric

PRIORITIES; fighting for property tax reform, job creation, infrastructure improvements and school safety.

REPRESENTATIVE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY 40TH DISTRICT

DEMOCRAT Sharon Guidi

PRIORITIES; supports legislation that ensures public education programs will be properly funded and wants to reform student loan system. Will fight to retain important elements of the ACA that matter most to our community including coverage for pre-existing conditions, affordable drug pricing, coverage for mental health, ensure widespread availability of testing and contact tracing for Covid-19, supports unions.

REPUBLICAN Natalie Mihalek

PRIORITIES; will fight to end opiod epidemic, open veterans preference for state jobs to all honorably discharged or disabled veterans, remove barriers to providing a real estate tax exemption for veterans with service connected disabilities, protect citizens from out of control taxes.

REPRESENTATIVE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY 46^H DISTRICT

DEMOCRAT Byron Timmins

PRIORITIES: Will increase state funding for K-12 basic education, concentrate on rehabilitation for non-violent crime offenders, fight to establish safe patient limits and staffing transparency in nursing homes, supports unions, will fight against gerrymandering.

REPUBLICAN Jason Ortitay

PRIORITIES; Will reform the tax code, strengthen educational opportunities and boost job creation.

REPRESENTATIVE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY 48TH DISTRICT

DEMOCRAT Harlan Shober

PRIORITIES; Work to boost our K-12 education and fight for more sustainable funding, create more local jobs, expand internet access to jumpstart job growth and support remote education, shine new light on the opioid crisis and ensure addiction is addressed as a medical condition that can be overcome.

REPUBLICAN Tim O'Neal

PRIORITIES; Working to properly fund addiction treatment, create and protect jobs, improve infrastructure, reform local government.

REPRESENTATIVE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY 49TH DISTRICT

DEMOCRAT Randy J. Barli

PRIORITIES; Ensure access to voting for every Pennsylvanian

REPUBLICAN Bud Cook

PRIORITIES; Will protect family-sustaining jobs, fight drug epidemic, reduce taxes and hold government accountable.

REPRESENTATIVE IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY 50TH DISTRICT

DEMOCRAT Pam Snyder

PRIORITIES; Fighting to protect coal and gas jobs and work to bring family-sustaining jobs to Western PA, ensure all schools have proper funding for quality education and the protection of our children, expand high speed internet access, committed to correction officers safety, and agriculture.

REPUBLICAN Larry Yost

PRIORITIES; Top priority is the opioid crisis. Will lower or eliminate excessive taxes through tax reform, economic development and job growth